EXCHANGE STUDENT AT SCIENCES PO TOULOUSE

If your home university has a partnership with Sciences Po Toulouse, you may come as part of an exchange program (e.g. Erasmus+ or bilateral agreements), for one semester or a full academic year.

- You remain enrolled at your home university
- You do not pay tuition fees at Sciences Po Toulouse
- You must be officially nominated by your home institution
- Depending on your home university, a Learning Agreement may be required. If that's the case, it must be completed and validated before or upon arrival

Sciences Po Toulouse has many partnerships with universities around the world. If your university does have a partnership, you can contact the responsible person at your university to be nominated at Sciences Po Toulouse.
